

Yanta, Judy

AA

From: Colin Valentine [cvalentine@chartertn.net]
Sent: Tuesday, December 25, 2001 9:10 PM
To: ASKDOJ
Subject: USDOJ Comments

This is an example of what Microsoft is doing! The DOJ should not have settled!

To: <ms255@microsoft.com> (Microsoft Corporation)
Cc: <cvalentine@chartertn.net>
Sent: Monday, December 24, 2001 8:48 PM
Subject: Outlook Express

> Two days ago I scanned a printed page using a Visioneer scanner, and sent > the file as an attachment to my own e-mail address. The letter displayed > with the following message:
> "OE removed access to the following unsafe attachments in your mailbox:
> december MAX"
> I have been satisfactorily using the Visioneer scanner and sending the > resulting files as attachments using Outlook Express since July of 2001.
> The message described above displays in a narrow bar across the top portion > of the e-mail page. The operating system is Windows 98, in a Compaq > Presario. There were no software changes in the same time frame. I have > been using a very widely used firewall for about the last year. Can you > remove this undesired and unauthorized interference by your Outlook Express > application?
>
>
> Thank you,
>
> ColinValentine
>
> cvalentine@chartertn.net
>
> (865) 681-7694
>
> 1715 Linda Lane
>
> Maryville, TN 37803

RECEIVED
1-4-02

21711